IHSAA TO INDUCT THREE INTO HALL OF FAME

The Idaho High School Activities Association's Hall of Fame annually honors individuals who have given many years of exemplary service to Idaho's youth. Three such individuals will be inducted as the Hall of Fame Class of 2018. Sally Green (Moscow), Rod Malone (Eden/Hazelton) and Terry Mooney (Weiser) will be honored at ceremonies during the 39th annual Hall of Fame banquet Wednesday, August 1, 6:30 p.m. at the Boise Centre in downtown Boise. Ticket information will be posted on the IHSAA website in mid May.

Other awards to be presented at the banquet include the Dick Fleischmann Memorial Award to Vince Mann, Borah HS, the Wes Lowe Memorial Award to Jeff Horsley, Soda Springs HS and the Duane D. Wolfe Memorial Award to Chad's Rental, Pocatello. Distinguished Service Awards for each of the six activity districts, the Spirit of Sport Award and Official of the Year will also be presented. Those recipients will be announced at a later date.

Hall of Fame - Class of 2018

Sally Greene, Moscow Sally Greene spent her entire thirty-four year educational career working as a teacher, coach and administrator in northern Idaho. Although Sally is considered a legendary girls basketball coach, with numerous state titles to her credit, she also coached tennis, softball and golf during her storied career. A tireless educator, Sally served in leadership positions for numerous professional organizations including the District II Board of Control, the IAAA Board of Directors and the IASA.

Rod Malone, Eden/Hazelton Before his retirement in 2014, Rod Malone was a fixture in the halls of Valley High School. Beginning his career in 1985, Rod worked at VHS as a teacher and coach (football and girls basketball) for eleven years before becoming principal in 1994. Rod served as principal for 18 years and during that time made significant contributions to Valley High School and District IV as a whole. Many current schools administrators count Rod as one of their most influential mentors. Rod received numerous awards throughout his career including district and state coach of the year, District Distinguished Service, IHSAA Wes Lowe Memorial award and Idaho Coaches Association President's award.

Terry Mooney, Weiser Terry Mooney spent forty years working in the Weiser School District. He served as a teacher, assistant football coach, head baseball coach and athletic director during his stellar career. His hard work and willingness to serve in any capacity that was needed made Terry an invaluable asset not only to the students of WHS, but also the school administration and entire community. Terry served as the president of both the District III Coaches Association and the District III Board of Control and received numerous awards highlighting his accomplishments. During his tenure at Weiser High School, Terry managed many IHSAA play in games and state tournaments and did so at the highest level possible always doing whatever he could to make it a memorable experience for the student-athletes.
