Individual swimmers may swim a maximum of four events, no more than two of which may be individual events. Preliminaries and finals are considered one meet. Relay only swimmers must be listed in the master entry file. All relay swimmers and alternates must be entered in the file.

Declared False Start: In the event that an athlete choses to "Declare False Start" (DFS), the following procedures should be followed: (from NFHS Rule 3-2-3).

- For Prelims session: A declared fall start must be communicated to the referee prior to the start of the athlete's event.
- For Finals session: A declared false start must be communicated to the referee 15 minutes prior to the start of the finals session.

If the declared fall start is correctly communicated prior to the stated time frame, no penalty will be provided to the athlete. A declared false start does not disqualify the competitor from further competition or nullify previous performances. However, the event still counts as one of the competitors events and they may not exceed 4 events for the meet (no more than 2 individual events). For more clarification please see NFHS Rule 3-2 situations and Rulings in the NFHS Swimming Rulebook.

Seven lanes will be used in prelims for individual events; six lanes will be used for relay events. 5A and 6A preliminary events will swim in separate sessions on Friday, seeded in championship format by times from district meets. All finals events will swim and score in separate sessions on Saturday. Six finalists and six consolation finalists for individual events, six finalists and six consolation finalists for relay events per classification. The top 12 in individual events will score, the top 9 relay events will score.

Scoring Individual events: 16, 13, 12, 11, 10, 9, 7, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1

Relays: 32, 26, 24, 22, 20, 18, 14, 10, 8
