IHSAA Announces Baron® Championship Rings as Official Championship Rings Partner

Partnership celebrates the achievements of Idaho high school student-athletes and championship teams

BOISE, Idaho — October 27th — The Idaho High School Activities Association (IHSAA) is proud to announce a new partnership naming Baron® Championship Rings as the Official Championship Ring Partner of the IHSAA.

Through this partnership, Baron® Championship Rings will work with the IHSAA to celebrate the accomplishments of Idaho's high school student-athletes, coaches, and championship programs, providing opportunities to commemorate the dedication, teamwork, and excellence required to reach the pinnacle of high school competition.

"We're excited to welcome Baron® Championship Rings as our official championship ring partner," said Brandon Riley, General Manager, IHSAA Sports Properties. "Winning a state championship is an incredible achievement, and the memories associated with that accomplishment last a lifetime. Baron® Championship Rings understands the significance of those moments and shares our commitment to recognizing the hard work and dedication of Idaho's student-athletes."

"Partnering with the Idaho High School Activities Association as their official championship ring provider is an incredible privilege for Baron® Championship Rings," said Kevin Kloostra, Director of Partnerships & Strategic Accounts at Baron® Championship Rings. "Idaho's student-athletes pour immense heart and hard work into reaching the pinnacle of high school sports. We take great pride in designing custom rings that turn those crowning achievements into tangible memories they can carry forever."

The partnership reflects the IHSAA's ongoing commitment to working with organizations that support high school activities and recognize the achievements of student-athletes across Idaho.
