

High/Middle School Coaching Workshop

Saturday February 3rd

@ Boise Racquet and Swim Club

1116 North Cole Road

Boise, ID 83704

From 2:30pm-5:00pm

Please join us for a coaches training workshop geared towards newer high/middle school tennis coaches. If you are interested in learning: How to manage large groups, learn fun new group games, how to engage with players and parents, best practices for structuring practices, and having an opportunity to network with other coaches, this workshop is for you!

No cost to attend!

About the Organizers

- John Armstrong:
 - USPTA Elite Professional
 - 24 years Girls/Boys Head Varsity Coach (20 years Bishop Kelly High School
 - 4 years Berkeley High School, CA
 - 11 Idaho State team titles, 22 Idaho District Team Titles and 3 California Conference Championships
 - 2019 and 2021 USPTA (Intermountain Coach of the Year)
 - 2022 Idaho State Coaches Association (Distinguished Coach of the Year)
 - 20 IDHSAA and Idaho District (Coach of the Year)
- Larry Haugness:
 - Developed 61 State High School Champions
 - USPTA Elite Professional
 - PTR Professional in all 5 categories, National Clinician and Tester for 24 years
 - National 18's, Intersectional 16's, and 12's Zonals coach
 - Competitive Training Center/Area Training Center coach for 11 years.

-Appetizer's will be served at the beginning of the workshop.

-USPTA members will receive 2.5 continuing education credits.

-Any and all donations will go to Paws Rescue Inc.

REGISTER @

<https://playtennis.usta.com/USTAIdahoDistrict/Coaching>

- $0 cost to participate.
- Catered Food for the event
- Earn USPTA credit (For USPTA members)
- Questions? Contact Kyle Jewett at 208.322.5150 x203 or kjewett@idtennis.com