

Bob Sobotta – 2001 Hall of Fame Inductee

Idaho students benefitted from Bob Sobotta's involvement for more than 40 years. Much of his career as a teacher, coach, official, administrator, and community volunteer was spent in Lapwai where, as superintendent, he oversaw construction of a state-of-the-art athletic complex. Bob received numerous honors and awards throughout his career. He served on both the IHSAA Board of Directors and the YEA Board of Directors, of which he was a charter member.
