

Carl “Cotton” Barlow – 1983 Hall of Fame Inductee

Cotton Barlow served the town of Sandpoint for many years. The town fell in love with him as he brought an exciting brand of football that helped produce many winners. He also taught young and old that there is more to being a winner than posting numbers on a scoreboard. He had a unique ability to draw out of each athlete the best they had to give.