

David Neumann – 2016 Hall of Fame Inductee

David Neumann retired in 2010 as the Superintendent of the Genesee School District and the Head Volleyball Coach at Genesee High School. Over his 35-year career, he also served as Genesee's Principal and Athletic Director and was an educator, coach, and administrator at Wood River High School and Juneau-Douglas High School in Alaska.

Neumann led five teams to IHSA State Volleyball Championships over his career. He also promoted the sport through work with the Intermountain and Evergreen regions of the USA Volleyball Association and with the American Volleyball Coaches Association. He served two terms on the IHSA Board of Directors and was the District II IHSA Distinguished Service Recipient in 2010. In 2006, he notched his 500th career volleyball victory and received the AVCA Victory Award.
