Elmer Jordan – 1985 Hall of Fame Inductee

Elmer Jordan is remembered for his outstanding win-loss record and for the many lives he touched during his career. As athletic director and head basketball coach at Coeur d'Alene High School for 23 years, Elmer compiled a record of 400 wins, 169 losses. He began his career in Sandpoint and then came to Coeur d'Alene hoping to start his own boys' camp. While there he interviewed for a teaching position at the high school and was hired. While he compiled an outstanding win-loss record, he is remembered most for the way he worked with kids.
