

Floyd Bowers – 1983 Hall of Fame Inductee

Floyd Bowers was an educator for 45 years and a sports official for many others. He went to Buhl in 1931 as a teacher/coach and later became principal as well. He started a tradition of winning football teams in Buhl and had the honor of having the football field there named after him.

In 1944 he became superintendent and principal in Castleford where he remained until he retired in 1973. Floyd had a positive impact on the youth and citizens of the Magic Valley and always believed in strongly in the value of activities.