

Frank Uriguen – 1997 Hall of Fame Inductee

Frank Uriguen is well-known in Idaho for his officiating expertise in basketball and football at the high school and college levels. Frank began officiating in 1950 and continued for forty-two years. Frank worked numerous high school football playoffs and thirty state high school tournaments in basketball. He also refereed four 1-AA National Championship games and was elected to the Big Sky Hall of Fame in 1993.

For many years Frank served the IHSAA in training new officials in basketball and football throughout the state. He was an official in a national basketball training film and official rules book and was presented a national distinguished service award from the National Federation of State High School Associations for his work.
