

J. Ross Woods – 1981 Hall of Fame Inductee

J. Ross Woods graduated from Coeur d'Alene High School in 1923. He began teaching in Rathdrum in 1927 and continued teaching there until 1936 when he moved to Lewiston. He served as the chief music educator in the Lewiston School District for 32 years. During his time in Lewiston he maintained an excellent band program and helped to coordinate music throughout District II. As a result of his devotion and willingness to give, he became highly respected among the music educators throughout the state of Idaho.
