

Joleen Toone – 2017 Hall of Fame Inductee

Joleen Toone was a fixture of consistency in District IV and Gooding High School for most of her educational career. A graduate of Gooding HS, she retired from teaching and coaching from her alma mater in 2009 after 37 years in education. Throughout her career she coached volleyball, basketball, and track at Buhl and Gooding High Schools as well as serving as the Gooding Athletic Director for 18 years.

Over her career, Toone was honored with two Idaho State Coach of the Year awards while her teams won 5 state volleyball championships. Her service within the 4th district was a standard for others to admire. She was the 4th District AD of the Year, and also earned the Distinguished Service and President's Awards for service. She was the Idaho Association of Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance PE Teacher of the Year and Athletic Director of the Year. In 2015 Toone was elected into the Idaho Athletic Administrators Hall of Fame.
