

Lloyd Schiller – 1987 Hall of Fame Inductee

Lloyd Schiller graduated from Emmett High School where he played football, basketball, and baseball. After serving two years with the U.S. Air Force Aviation Engineers in Germany, Mr. Schiller attended the University of Idaho where he pitched for the baseball team. He graduated in 1952 and began teaching and coaching baseball, basketball, and football at Mountain Home High School.

Lloyd spent 34 years in Mountain Home, serving as principal for his last six years there. In 1965 he was selected to serve on the state Board of Control representing coaches and was honored by his fellow coaches in 1970 and 1981 for his contributions to high school athletics.