

Roslyn Brimhall – 2015 Hall of Fame Inductee

Roslyn Brimhall spent her thirty-seven-year career as a teacher, coach, and athletic director dedicated to the advancement of activities at Malad High School, as well as the entire fifth district where she served as the secretary for twenty-three years. Brimhall coached volleyball at Malad for 22 years, leading the team to the school's first state championship in 1982. She would follow that championship with three more in consecutive years and a fifth title in 1988. During that same time period, she was the head girls' basketball coach for 15 years, winning a state title in 1991. She also coached Malad's girls track team to eight district titles.

Over her career she was honored with five Idaho Coaches' Association 3A Volleyball Coach of the Year – as well as one honor for basketball – and one Idaho Coaches' Association State Volleyball Coach of the Year. In 1990 she was named the National High School Athletic Coaches' Association Region 7 Volleyball Coach of the Year.
